

Orenda Healing International's Four Corners Media Project FUNDRAISER

Imagine a world...

Where young people are helped to fulfill their unique potential,

Where elders are heard and respected for their wisdom and life experience,

Where poverty, environmental destruction, prejudice, and war are replaced by shared abundance, responsible Earth stewardship, brotherhood, and peace

The Four Corners Media Project

Teaches filmmaking to Navajo teenagers so they can appreciate their heritage, honor their elders, help preserve the Diné language and culture, and learn a viable profession.
